About the Conference

Youth Ministry can quickly become overwhelming with busyness, chaos, and energy-loss. Using history, vision, and goal setting to create a ground to build from, this ministry skills workshop will provide ideas that keep your program focused on the central task of youth ministry: Letting our relationship with them help youth in the Church. Focusing on four theological themes, attendees will explore ways to help young people continue to grow and develop as Christ's own. With new insight into youth ministry we can then attract others to the work of guiding our youth in their most important relationship, their connection with God. You will see that it indeed takes a village to raise a child!

About the Speaker

Emily Anna Perow holds a BA with a concentration in Nutrition and Child Development from Hampshire College. Prior to her current position as Diocesan Youth Coordinator for the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut for the past 11 years, she spent two years as the youth director at Grace Church, Amherst Massachusetts and one year as Christian Education Director and Youth group director at Church of the Holy Trinity in Middletown, Connecticut. Emily obtained her Youth Ministry Certificate from a two year practicum program with the National Episcopal Church and Province I in 1994. She was a consultant for the National Church Youth Ministry office for 5 years in cultural awareness training. She has been teaching cultural awareness to teenagers for the past 11 years. Emily is currently co-interim Provincial youth coordinator for the Province of New England.
